Opportunity tomorrow.*

FIVE CHICKENS

In rural communities, chickens are more than barnyard birds—they're hope in feathers. Because of generous donors, families receive a steady supply of protein-rich eggs to nourish children and a way to earn income through local markets. That means fewer empty plates, more shared meals and kids who can stay in school. It's a daily difference-maker—and a gift that grows with time.

A gift that's hog-wild for good.

ONE PIG

This little piggy is packed with potential. With the help of caring donors, a family can start a small business, earn income and put nutritious food on the table. Pigs grow fast and can make a big difference in a short time. It's a practical gift—with a curly tail and a whole lot of heart.

*Soft wool.
Strong future.*

ONE SHEEP

Sheep may be soft and gentle, but they're mighty helpers. Thanks to this gift, families receive cozy wool, nourishing dairy and a new way to earn income. It's a soft and steady source of support that brings warmth, comfort and the start of something new.

This goat means business.

ONE GOAT

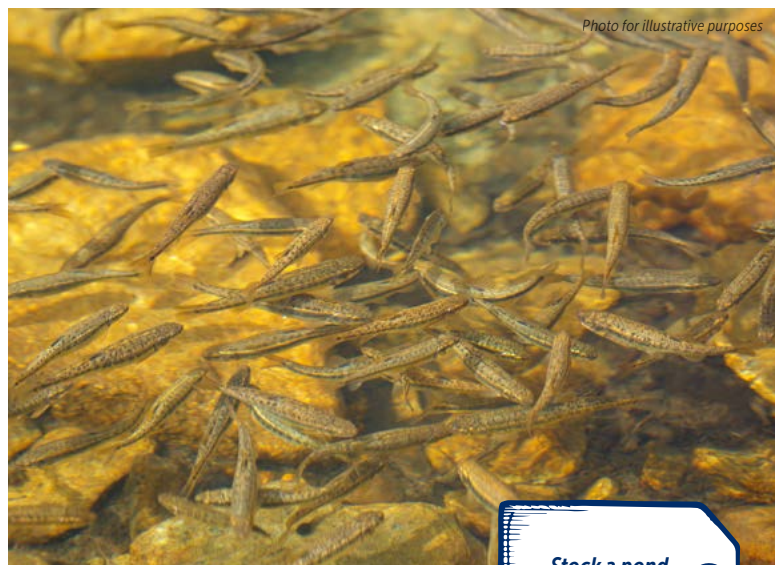

Goats are smart, sturdy and—let's be honest—adorable. Through this gift, families receive fresh milk to drink or sell, and baby goats to grow their herds and increase their income. Goats are strong, adaptable and a great way to help families move toward stability. It's a practical gift with a playful spirit.

Buzzing with opportunity.

ONE BEEHIVE

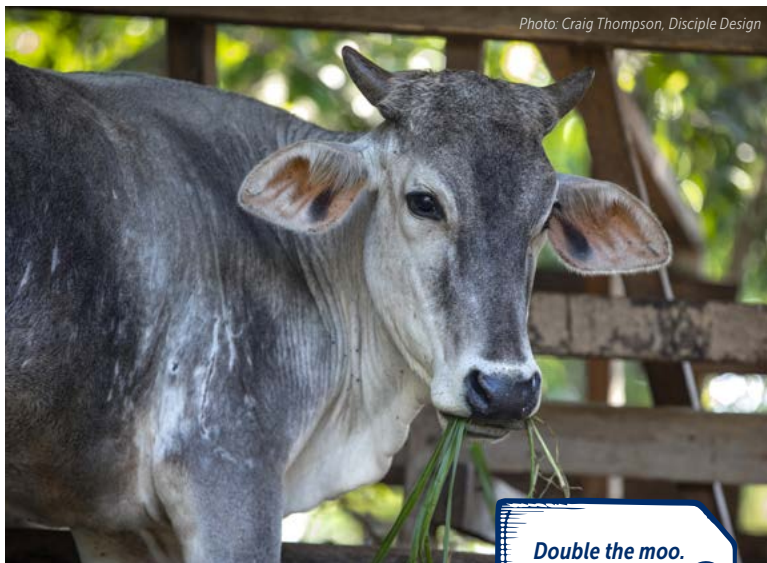

Bees may be small, but they're mighty heroes. With this sweet gift, families receive beehives, training and supplies to start a honey business. Honey offers nourishment and income, while bees help gardens thrive through pollination. It's a tiny army with a big, buzzing impact.

*Stock a pond.
Feed a future.*

500 BABY FISH

Thanks to generous support, families and communities can stock a pond with baby fish—creating a renewable source of food and income. These little swimmers grow fast and multiply quickly, offering lasting nourishment and opportunity. It's a small splash with big potential.

*Double the moo.
Double the impact!*

ONE COW

This moo-velous gift delivers nutrition, income and long-term stability. A cow offers fresh milk, calves to grow the herd and manure to help gardens flourish. For a family working toward a better life, it's a big-hearted gift with lasting results.

*Two donors.
One life-changing cow.*

SHARE A COW

When two donors team up, one very lucky family receives a cow—along with a whole lot of possibility. Cows offer daily milk, future income and a path toward greater stability. It's a moo-ing reminder of what generosity can do when people come together.

*Hatch hope.
Nourish a family.*

THE COOP KIT

A few chickens, some feed and a safe place to roost—this simple kit provides a family with everything needed to raise a small flock. With daily eggs and the chance to earn income, families gain food security and a way forward. It's a humble setup with a whole lot of heart (and a few feathers).

*Small herd.
Huge potential.*

THE LITTLE HERD

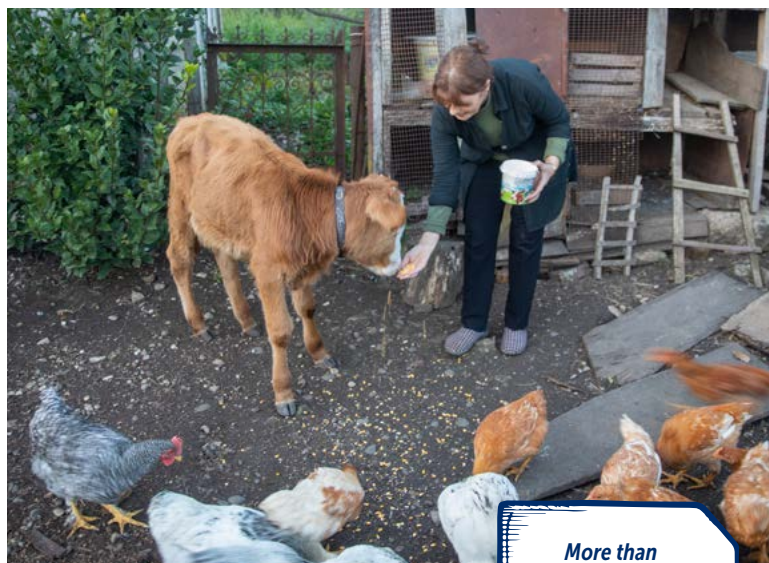

With a few goats and sheep—and the training to care for them—a family can begin building a brighter future. These animals provide milk, wool and baby animals to grow their herds or sell at market. It's a little starter herd with big-time impact (and very cute faces).

*Sweet gifts.
Stronger futures.*

THE BUZZ BUNDLE

This buzz-worthy bundle includes beehives, protective gear and the training needed to launch a honey business. Families can sell the honey, feed their children and boost their harvests through natural pollination. It's a tiny team of winged workers making big things happen.

*More than a farm—
it's a future.*

THE WHOLE FARM

This big-hearted gift includes pigs, goats, cows, chickens, sheep and bees—all the building blocks of long-term stability. Multiple families receive animals, tools and training to grow their own food, generate income and support each other. It's not just a farm—it's a field full of hope.

Fruitful gifts begin small.

FRUIT SEEDS

You can plant the seeds of nourishment and long-term health. This small gift helps families grow fruit trees and bushes that produce food season after season. It's a low-cost, high-impact way to fight hunger and improve nutrition—one seedling, one harvest, one hopeful future at a time.

*Feed a village.
One seed at a time.*

VEGETABLE SEEDS

Seeds may be small, but they hold the promise of a harvest. This gift helps communities grow staple crops that nourish families and generate income. With the right support, one season's planting becomes next season's progress. That's how real change takes root.

A sweet harvest of hope.

AN ACRE OF SWEET POTATOES

A single acre of sweet potatoes can feed families, fuel local markets and replenish the land. These hardy, nutrient-rich crops grow well in challenging conditions, making them a smart investment for a sustainable source of food. This gift delivers where it counts: in nourishment, resilience and opportunity.

*A little extra.
Just in time.*

SUPERMARKET VOUCHER

Sometimes what's needed most is choice. A supermarket voucher lets families facing hardship buy the food or essentials they need most—fresh produce, baby formula or a missing ingredient for dinner. It's a simple, timely gift that meets people where they are.

You fill the pantry.

FEED A FAMILY

Hunger doesn't follow a schedule. Because of generous donors, this gift provides groceries for families when the paycheck runs out, the storm hits or the cupboard is bare. It's practical, timely relief—and a reminder that help and hope often arrive together.

*Grow food.
Sow hope.*

GARDEN STARTER KIT

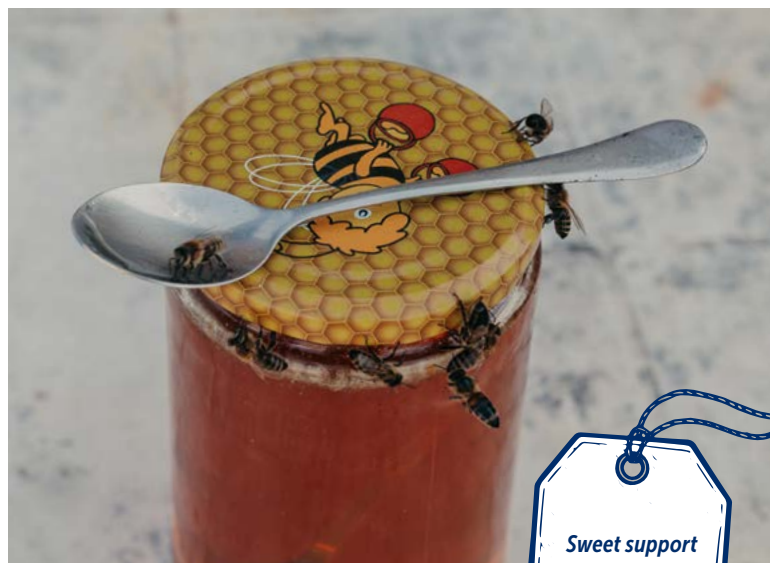

With a shovel, seeds and a watering can, a family can turn a patch of soil into a reliable source of food. This starter kit helps people take control of their nutrition and build something that lasts. Because sometimes the best way to fight hunger is one row at a time.

*Fuel the flock.
Feed the family.*

CHICKEN FEED

Even the hardest-working hens need fuel. This gift provides high-quality feed that keeps chickens laying, children eating and small businesses thriving. It's a low-cost way to keep a good thing going.

Sweet support for pollinators.

SUGAR FOR BEES

When nectar is scarce, bees need a little boost. Sugar helps keep hives strong through dry spells or tough seasons—protecting a vital source of honey, income and pollination. It's a sweet lift for nature's busiest helpers.

Preserve the harvest. Feed a community.

HOME GARDENING

This gift helps communities turn every growing season into a harvest of hope. With tools, training and helpful solutions like solar dryers and seed banks, families can grow, store and share what they plant—season after season. It's food security that multiplies.

*Nutritious meals for elders.
A gift of care.*

ONE MONTH OF FOOD FOR AN ELDER

Taking care of our elders is part of what makes communities strong. Your gift provides a month of nourishing meals for an older adult who might otherwise go without. It's a simple way to share comfort, support health and show love—one meal at a time.

*One year.
One family.
A future with enough.*

FOOD + WATER SECURITY

This gift supports an entire year of food and clean water access for one family—through practical tools like seeds, livestock, water filters and training. It helps families meet daily needs while planting the seeds of long-term change. It's more than survival—it's the start of a more secure and hopeful tomorrow.

Immediate relief for families in crisis.

EMERGENCY FOOD RATIONS

When disaster strikes, food can't wait. This gift ensures emergency rations are ready to distribute the moment they're needed—offering comfort and nutrition during evacuation, conflict or catastrophe. It's a powerful reminder that even in the hardest moments, help is on the way—and hope is never far behind.
